

Acudetox Africa Ethics Pledge

Every Acudetox Africa practitioner certified in the NADA 5 point protocol must agree to, and sign our code of ethics before their registration certificate can be issued.

1. To believe in the dignity and worth of all human beings and to pledge to provide service for the welfare and betterment of all members of Acudetox Africa.
2. To use acupuncture detoxification in a supportive and nurturing way in recognition of the right to humane treatment of suffering directly or indirectly from substance abuse.
3. Never to withhold treatment as punishment or to use acupuncture detoxification in a programmatically punitive manner.
4. To maintain a professional relationship with all persons served and to refer them promptly when this is not possible.
5. To adhere strictly to the established rules of confidentiality of all records, materials and knowledge concerning persons served in accordance with all current government regulations.
6. To contribute my ideas and findings to the general body of knowledge concerning acupuncture detoxification.
7. To regularly evaluate my own professional strengths and limitations, biases and levels of effectiveness, striving for self-improvement and seeking professional development through further education and training, to agree to periodic review of technical competency by a NADA-designated consultant.
8. To refrain from undertaking any activity where my personal conduct including the abuse of alcohol and other mood-altering drugs, is likely to result in inferior professional services, denigrate the profession in general, or constitute a violation of law.
9. To be committed to a drug-free state and sobriety for all patients.
10. To avoid claiming directly, or implying, professional qualifications that exceed those I have actually obtained.
11. To accept the fact that professional competency to use the acupuncture technique for detoxification does not imply competency to use acupuncture in general.
12. To use acupuncture detoxification technique in conjunction with appropriate counselling and supportive services.
13. To support the concept that training of acupuncture practitioners will be done only by competent: individuals designated by Acudetox Africa.
14. Not to exploit acupuncture detoxification for personal gain.
15. To provide accurate information regarding my education, training and experience, professional affiliation and certification.
16. To make public statements regarding the effectiveness of acupuncture detoxification that are within the generally accepted experience of the profession as a whole or within the individual practitioner's experience.
17. To respect the integrity of other forms of health care and to make efforts to build bridges and develop collaborative relationships to achieve the best possible care for individual patients.
18. To make an effort to keep fees within the reach of the general public, and to have provision for flexibility in fees for low-income patients.
19. Never to advertise treatment fees online or any via any other media.
20. Never to offer published discounts or package discounts online or via any other media.
21. Not to associate myself with commerce in such a way as to let it influence, or appear to influence, my attitude towards the treatment of my patients.
22. Never to do anything that would weaken the physical or mental resistance of a human being, except for strictly therapeutic or prophylactic indications imposed in the interest of the patient.
23. To use great caution in publishing discoveries. The same applies to methods of treatment whose value is not yet recognized by the profession at large.
